The issues involved in this case relate to election to a Cooperative Urban Bank Limited. We have been told that elections have already been held. Therefore, in our view, this writ appeal has become infructuous. However, learned counsel for the appellants submits that since the learned Single Judge has interpreted Rule 22 of the Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Societies Rules, 1964 (for short "the Rules"), in case they proceed with the remedies available under law, the order passed by the learned Single Judge may come in their way. In this view of the matter, we dispose of the writ appeal holding that the observations made by the learned Single Judge with respect to Rule 22 of the Rules may not be taken as a final expression of views of this Court and the petitioners/appellants if aggrieved of the elections, they may take recourse to the remedies available to them under law. No order as to costs.
